The pool is 22ft long and the dock will be 6 feet to simulate a jump from a duck blind. Dogs will be judged on the point at which their hip enters the water much like long jumping in track where the officials measure the heel. Dogs will be assigned to a wave. Each wave will have up to 7 dogs and the dogs will have 3 jumps within their wave. The jumps will be measured by two judges to within 6" who will be along the sides of the pool. The judge's call is final. The top 10 dogs from the waves will be invited to participate in the finals.

Dogs need to be on leash at all times except when they are jumping. Dogs may not be tied and left unattended. Crates are recommended. Do not allow your dogs to mingle with the general public unless they are registered as a therapy dog. There will be a staging area for participants that will be off limits to the general public. For general safety please keep your dogs in this area when not on the dock.
